THE CAMP OF KNOWN DELIGHT

Week 2, First Session 2011

This week's contributors: Alex Yoon, Jonah Scher & Jamie Cook

We're in the swing of things now! With week one under our belt, new friends and exciting classes, what better place to be? So far, we have had perfect weather with only rain at night.

Last week we wished REACH well as they embarked on their own summer adventures and gave a fond farewell to our TLS bike trip

This week we look forward to Walkabout Day, and of course the big celebrations for Independence Day!

Wake up in the morning
Feel the summer sunshine
Rudd Pond greets us with her gentle wind
Another day begins

We spend our time
Doing what we love
Or trying something new
Look at things from a different point of view?

At Becket we feel a sense of security
That allows us to be who we are
Without fear of judgment or disapproval
One day it will take us far

Lets use our time wisely
As summer adventures takes flight
So we'll know we did our best each day
As we close our eyes each Becket night.

This week's Becket Mysteries By Jamie Cook

The Upper Automat:

The upper automat is a rumored automat with lots of cool features. It is a hidden automat for counselors so instead of me researching about it submit what you think it looks like. I'll pick the best one and write about it in the next Seen and Heard.

Random Camp Fact:

Did you know there used to be a 5th Village called "Explorer Village"!

ASK KAFUCHE

Q: Dear Kafuche,
Why is the Seen and Heard such an important part of camp?
-Iraquois Camper

A: Hello fellow Iraquois friend,
The Seen and Heard first appeared in 1906. It was written on the back of envelopes and read to the Becket community at evening campfires. Over 100 years on, it still provides a portrait of camp life, as painted by those who were there.

Hope you decide to be part of Becket history by writing or drawing for the Seen and Heard. I'd like to see more campers take part in this long-standing tradition.

INTERVIEW CORNER BY JONAH SCHER
 Highlighting Stuart Winchester, Aides Director
 2011, Frontier VD, 2010, Pioneer VD 2009

- 1) Why did you want to be the Aides Director?
So I can help develop some of the future leaders of Becket.
- 2) What is your favorite thing about Becket?
I love the Becket Mottos and our beautiful Rudd Pond.
- 3) How did you find out about Becket? Just a plain old VHS promo tape.
- 4) Who or what inspired you to come to Becket?
I wanted to get out of the city (NYC) for the summer.
- 5) What is your favorite Becket song? Sons of Noble Living
- 6) What is your favorite fruitful flavor? Chocolate
- 7) If you can change on things about Becket, what would it be?
I would love a retractable dome, so we can just put it up in the rain.
- 8) Do you like being the Aides director? Most Certainly
- 9) Is it a hard job? Sometimes, but I have the help of 20 awesome guys.

CONSTRUCTION CABIN :

This year, Pioneer Village begins its revamping, and Cabin Crockett will have the honor of being the first cabin built. Did you know that campers who apply to be part of this are entered into a lottery, and each session, three Ranger cabins work on building something. "Its a privilege because its helping camp, and its fun to look at what you've done, and the progress you've made", says Jeremy Lemenheer from Cabin Bryce. Matthew Stein shares the same reasons, to build something for Becket. For Chris Alpert, his reasons are a little more sentimental. Both his brothers were previous construction cabin campers. Luke helped build Cayuga and Charlie, Onandaga. Their goal is to have the roof built by the end of first session. What a feat! Good luck boys!

Hi! I'm Alex Yoon, the person who's creating this strip. This is my first time writing (and drawing) for a real newspaper, so I'm very excited! I hope you like this comic, and don't worry, more will be coming in later issues of the Seen and Heard. I hope to see you sometime.
